Police Seek Forger

POSED AS AGENT OF EASTERN FIRM; IS IN NORTH

Robert Ropton, alias John Preston Boynton, alleged respecentative of an eastern manufacturing firm, who spoke of his travels to the four corners of the earth with considerable frankness, and who expressed himself as desirous of locating in the business section of Stege is being sought by Constable Fred Davis today on a felony warrant charging forgery.

Ropton as he introduced himself is alleged by Constable Fred Davis to have forged the name of J. P. Boynton to a check for $15 which he cashed at the Henry Timm saloon.

"I have written the directors of the company which I represent and have received a favorable reply as to their intentions of opening a branch house here," was the manner in which Boynton greeted Stege businessmen.

Yesterday Timm received the check from a local bank given him by Ropton was marked "no account known of."

Roomers at the hotel near Stege Junction where Boynton is alleged to have been stopping informed Constable Davis today that they had seen the mystery man leave at an early hour last night with two suitcases.

One lodger stated that Boynton said he was going to take a three day run to Portland.

FIREMEN SHOULD KEEP BUSY, SO COUNCIL BUYS MACHINERY

According to remarks made by several members of the board the installation of the machinery for the up-keep of fire trucks will mean the appointment of a city machinist.

Opposing the additional fire expense were Councilmen Picton, Lane and Ogborn.

Those favoring the purchase in the belief that "it would relieve the firemen of much of their idle time" were, Ludewig, Gerlach, Fernald, Penry and Hartnett.

The machinery is to be installed in the Fifth street fire hall and will consist of a steel lathe, belting, a forge and tools.

Although both men had the letters E. R. tatooed on their right forearm their features are widely different.

BURGLAR FOUND IN CAVE NEAR SAN PABLO TO BE EXAMINED

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, February 8.—Charles Holt, nomadic burglar, arrested as he emerged from a cave in the foothills east of San Pablo on Sunday night by Constable John Moltoza and who was later found to have a quantity of stolen property in his possession was brought here today.

Holt, is 28 years of age, tall, dark, has a heavy growth of beard on his face and long hair.

He was but partially clad when arrested.

Although H. F. Scow a San Pablo rancher has placed a charge of burglary against Holt, it is thought that this will be dropped and the man examined as to his sanity.

When question by Undersheriff William Veale, Holt said that his home was in Montana.

"I have wealthy relatives residing in Oakland," stated Holt "but I would not trouble them with my misfortunes."

Holt denies that he stole the flour, boots, potatoes and bread found in his cave.

"I purchased those articles at Benicia," he says.

LAST OF TENTH ST. CLAIMS WILL BE PAID

With but one claim pending, commissioners appointed for the widening and improvement of Tenth street north last evening tendered their resignation to the city council.

RAMMED SCHOONER MENACE TO SHIPS

COUNCILMEN HAULS TELEPHONE COMPANY OVER THE COALS FOR POOR WORK NOW BEING DONE

"It's about time that we know where we stand," said Councilman Ludewig at the meting of the council last evening. "The property owners of the city pay for putting in first-class streets, and then along comes the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and digs them all up to put in underground conduits, and does not repair the streets as they should be. I believe the company should be stopped in its work until this franchise matter has been settled.

"I inspected the work the company is doing on Macdonald avenue and it is a shame. The concrete it dug out, then the conduits are laid, and instead of putting in fresh concrete, and giving the street a proper foundation, the old stuff is put back, some mud mixed with it, tamped down a bit, and then a thin skim of concrete put on the top. This simply means that in a few months the street will sag, and the avenue will be ruined.

Manager Calvert at this point appeared on the scene and stated the work was being done under an inspector that had been placed on the job by the superintendent of streets.

"Then what in the world is he doing that he is allowing that work to be done as it is? It strikes me as being a peculiar proposition that the city should have to bear the expense of an inspector to see its own streets torn up and not put back in proper condition."

Councilman Ogborn expressed the same opinion as Councilman Ludewig.

The question came up, as to why the delay on the franchise, and City Attorney Hall stated that all points had been settled with the exception of whether the city should have a conduit or a cable. The city wanted both, but the company only wanted to grant one. It was stated that the franchise would be presented to the council at the meeting next Monday evening.

To many the provisions of the franchise seem like the city is giving away an exceedingly valuable right for practically nothing. It is to run for the term of forty years, and only provides for a minimum of twenty free phones.

At the present time San Francisco has 1,000 free phones, but under the proposed franchise Richmond is to have but the minimum at all times no matter how large the city grows.

Reports about the city are to the effect that the public will not permit such valuable rights to be given away, and that when the franchise is passed, it will be referendumed.

POLICE FOOLED BY FALSE ADDRESSES

(Special to Record-Herald)

OAKLAND, February 8.—Inability of Constable Fred Davis of Stege and two detectives of the local police department to locate two men, members of an auto party which last evening plundered the home of Dr. T. H. Breneman at Rust has led the authorities to believe that they wer members of a gang of auto bandits sought for numerous petty offences.

A vacant lot was found by the police where George Smith one member of the party is said to have resided while a pickle works occupies the address given by Arthur Sprague.

IS ILL

Mrs. James P. Cassidy, prominent fraternal woman is reported ill at her home, 437 Tenth street.

MEASURE KILLING JITNEYS IS STILL SLEEPING

For some unaccountable reason the ordinance that was framed at the behest of the traction company which is intended to put the jitney bus men out of busines, did not come up last night at the meeting of the common council for second reading and final passage.

When the ordinance was reached Councilman Ogborn made a motion that the measure go over another week.

Some contend that the council is using it as a weapon to force the traction company to move their tracks on San Pablo avenue, so that the avenue can be improved to conform to the work of the state highway commission, while others state that the fear of the referendum is the reason.

It is generally conceded the ordinance is one of the most drastic that has been framed by any municipality in California.

YOUTH WANTED TO SEE THE WAR; JAILED

A runaway boy, giving his name as Ferdinand Feliciano, aged, 15 years and stating his father to be a prominent Watsonville apple grower was arrested in the Southern Pacific yards last night by Policeman Dan Cox.

THE BRITISH ARMY

The professional British army which fought the battle of Mons, retreated nearly to the Seine and participated in the Armageddon of the Marne, is now no more. It is in hospitals or in its grave. But before it passed, the "contemptible little army," as the kaiser called it, justified its existence as a fighting force.

Indeed, the regular standing army of the British empire was a nearly perfect instrument for the purpose for which it was designed—primarily, colonial warfare. Its efficiency as a force to be shipped to India, Egypt, China or elsewhere was of the highest, and what it accomplished in France and Belgium in August and September and later in front of Ypres will be celebrated in the annals of war. As Secretary Garrison said, the other day, of our own standing army, it was a highly polished and expensive diamond.

But the small professional army was not suited to the conditions of continental warfare. It was an infinitesimal quantity before the flood that inundated Belgium and northern France. It did heroic duty and died honorably, but it was not suited for that species of warfare. It was not big enough or well enough equipped.

Likewise the imperial army of the German empire was organized and directed to a purpose. That purpose was to make instant and overwhelming war that should crush opponents in the briefest possible time. How well it was fitted for the purpose was disclosed in August, 1914, when von Hindenburg annihilated a Russian army in East Prussia, and in September when von Kluck drove to the gates of Paris.

Moltke overthrew Austria in a seven weeks' war; he virtually finished France in a month's campaign. To hit the first blow and to hit it crushingly has been the essential principle of Prussian strategy, and its practical achievement too.

The German invaders, a year and a half ago deployed all their forces and by the time they reached the Marne, what would have been the reserves of any other army were in the first line. Their presence almost accomplished overwhelming victory, and also barely escaped overwhelming catastrophe.

The point is that Germany was organized for quick decisive war, but what she now is meeting is long gruelling war. As England, after the war's outbreak has been compelled to organize for continental warfare, so Germany has been compelled to reorganize for a prolonged struggle.

Whether either has wholly succeeded, events will disclose. But both erred in major fashion in their calculations. There is a lesson in it all for America. We have a little professional army modeled for fighting Indians and more recently to take care of our colonial possessions. If we are to fight any country stronger than Mexico, we should prepare to meet an army on the German model. Japan has the British navy system and the German army system—the best army and navy system in the world.

The war in Europe is expected to cost eighty billion dollars by the first of August. The total wealth of the United States is estimated now at two hundred billions.

That member of the Prussian diet who said that Americans want to prolong the war should have his diet changed.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Just now the question of sport for the coming season is commanding the columns of the newspapers as never before, particularly as it relates to professionalism in college athletics.

Much controversy, considerable detective work and a lot of trouble have been devoted to the involved task of disbarring college athletes on the ground that during vacation, or at some time in their youthful lives, they have accepted money, or have participated with paid players who did accept money, for services in certain games or competitions of skill and strength.

Just why the athletic authorities should thus outdo all the other departments of our seats of athletics and learning, is not quite clear to the layman. The student athlete is permitted to pitch hay, wait on table, wash dishes, drive vehicles, saw wood, play the slide trombone, act in vaudeville, or do anything else he may select as fitted to his needs and talents. But he must not sell his ability as an athlete.

Dentistry students make money assisting dentists. Medical students collect money for assisting at an operation. Even theological students may collect the price of a new hat for filling a vacant pulpit, and any student capable may be paid for teaching. Some students have appeared as chorus men in summer opera. There is no record of any of these scapegraces having been "plucked," or discredited or ostracized by their alma maters.

But the college athlete is shadowed, thumb-nailed, finger-printed, Bertilloned, sleuthed, accused, tried, condemned and cast into outer darkness, if he is suspected of contending with professionals, or if he accepts so much as a square meal for his athletic prowess.

We all agree that men should not be employed on college teams who are not in college as legitimate students, and that the major part of their work should be study, not athletics; but as laymen, we fail to see why any student who is obliged to work his way through college should not be permitted to use his ability as a baseball or football player for that purpose quite as readily as he is allowed to become a waiter in a hotel or restaurant or a cab driver in the purlius of a big city.

All Hank Ford has to do to have a noisy presidential boom is to turn loose enough cash.

A lot of states envy Indiana which is preparing to liquidate its entire bonded debt.

Austria-Hungary hasn't claimed that the liner Persia was a victim of spontaneous explosion.

Both sides are doing some tall lying about resources in men and in money.

Here's the most inconsiderate editor—he actually demands that congress improve its opportunities.

No matter how high the cost of anything else may soar, the cost of war is always higher.

Was Judge Gary giving away high finance secrets, not just predicting, when he said we will get some jars and jolts as results of the war?

That distance doesn't lessen the strength of the war pinch is shown by the loud "hollering" of the banana men in Nicaragua and Costa Rico.

NOTES FROM THE PLAYHOUSES

ORPHEUM THEATRE (Oakland)

The big stream of vaudeville novelties that flow towards the Oakland Orepheum seems never to diminish in quantity and quality. The show that had its opening Sunday is a fair sample of that stream. Every act that comes to the Orepheum these days is a new feature, there being no hold overs and so the crowds see a complete new show every Sunday. Probably that explains why the theater is packed night and day, even in these "hard times."

William Rock and Frances White came back to receive a big warm welcome. Rock is probably the smartest dancer on the stage, and also a master director. His skilled hand is shown in the charming arrangement of dances which he and Miss White exhibit. There is a dash of comedy and burlesque between their dances making it all the more enjoyable.

Brandon Hurst, a star from the "legitimate" is a big feature of the bill with his play by Edwin Peple, called "The Girl." Strongly written and finely played this comedy drama proved to be one of the most brilliant spots in the Sunday program.

Two boomerang throwers are Vam and Bell, and in their picturesque Australian costumes, their wonderful feats were a decided novelty.

Chic Sale has always been a great favorite with Orpheum regulars and his witty characterizations of humorous studies taken from life, most of them from the school room, are everlasting favorites.

Tom Smith and Ralph Austin offer a lively act that they call "All Fun" and it is exactly that.

The Metropolitan Dancing Girls, featuring George and May Le Fevre have a beautiful dancing spectacle that is extremely classy.

Marie Bishop a pretty girl renders violin selections in delightful style.

The big feature picture this week is called "The Ruling Passion" and it is indeed a sensational affair, with most of its scenes laid in the Orient, giving an excuse for picturesque settings and very strenuous episodes.

HEED THE WARNING

Many Richmond People Have Done So.

When the kidneys are weak they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Weak kidneys usually expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brickdust" sediment and painful passage. Sluggish kidneys often cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired, languid feelings and frequent rheumatic twinges.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. There is no better recommended remedy.

Richmond people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. E. E. Klein, 1812 Nevin Ave., Richmond, says: "Some time ago I felt that my condition needed attention. I felt weak and the least work wore me out. My kidneys were in bad shape and I often had attacks of backache. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they made a complete cure. I no longer feel nervous or run down."

Price 50¢, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Klein had. Foster-Milburn, Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. advt

WHAT HAS WAR DONE TO THE SONG BIRDS?

AMONG the GULLS

Have the song birds of Europe become the victims of bullets, shrapnel and deadly gases, or have they deserted the war-ridden continent entirely? So engrossed have Americans been in other phases of the terrific struggle that few have thought of the effect of war on wild life.

During a severe artillery duel it is reported that several British soldiers were seen to be crying. When asked why, they said that during the lulls of the bombardment the birds could be heard singing. Over one trench hung a tree, and on a bough were two birds preening their feathers and twittering.

The war has helped instead of hurt the birds of Europe, is the declaration of T. Gilbert Pearson, secretary of the National Association of Audubon Societies and American authority on birds. "Our correspondents have discovered," said he, "that the wild birds are receiving an amity from the hands of men in Europe to which they have long been strangers.

"For example, the French government has stopped all hunting, and the minister of war has issued an order that the sale of no native game will be tolerated. Ordinarily, more than 1,000 tons of native killed game are sold annually in the markets of France—think of it—more than two million pounds, and how many million birds?

To carry on its protective work through education, the association from its national headquarters at 1974 Broadway, New York City, is asking for the enlistment of five thousand friends of the birds, as members of the association at $5 each, to serve as recruits in the campaign the society is making to stop bird slaughter in America.

BETWEEN SEASON FROCKS

NEW YORK, February 8.—No one who sees the fashionably dressed throng here can fail to be impressed with the growing popularity for ribbon trimmings, nor with their effectiveness both for hat and dress garnitures. Very stylish are the towering frills and aeroplane bows that are a notable feature of the new hats, while the banding of dress skirts with ribbon in graduated widths of ribbon constitutes a notably modish type of trimming which appeals to clever managers as an easy way to freshen skirts of net of chiffon that are a bit crushed by the wear and tear of this busy social season.

Warm days that suggest that spring is just round the corner, come now and then to remind women that it is time to take thought of the between season gowns that are so smart and practical to wear with ones small furs, when the winter top coat becomes a burden. As usual blue serge holds the lead for these one piece frocks, and the combinations of plaided and striped goods with plain do not differ greatly from those worn last fall. Though skirts are a bit longer and in many models wider, there are others, as well endorsed, that show quite a moderate fullness with little tendency to flare at the foot, also many very smart pleated skirts that hang straight notwithstanding the amount of material used in their construction. Pockets continue to be important features in this type of dress, and make their appearance in all sorts of unexpected places. A very pretty new pleated skirt has two pockets directly at the back in a yoke effect. Yokes are very much to the fore both for skirts and waists, and are responsible for some of the smartest tailored lines.

Beside the ever popular serge there are gabardines, whipcords, bedfords and other cords, and for sport use various Jersey cloth weaves that make trig and comfortable suits. These latter, however, are usually made up in coat and skirt style rather than in one piece models, though one sees a few excellent one piece Jersey dresses.

A very taking black and white

sport suit has the skirt laid in wide side pleats developed in black and white stripes, the coat of all white matching material curves in decidedly at the waist line, and has a full flaring skirt that ends at the line of the hips, as do most of the new coat models not in the bolero class.

Bolero's are perhaps the most characteristic Spanish note in the new spring fashions. Even the one piece dresses show these jacket effects, though skirt and waist are joined. Extra coats of the bolero type are bound to be increasingly popular as the season advances, affording as they do great chance for variety when worn with odd dresses and separate skirts.

Braidings and embroidery in vivid contrasting colors, done in silk, mercerized threads, beads or combinations of these are the favorite trimmings for these pretty Spanish jackets. Coats of black silk or satin with jet or silver embroideries are particularly fetching additions to the outfit.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

CLUB ENJOYS A GUEST DAY PARTY

Oriental was the effect which the pussy willows and China lily decorations gave the "guest day" party held by the Richmond club yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. George Barnes Bird, prominent member of the New Century club of Oakland was the principal speaker of the afternoon.

She was followed by several of the local clubwomen following which dainty refreshments were served.

About sixty invited guests were present at the party.

HAVE YOUR NEW SUIT CHARGED

Do you pay cash for everything you by, sir? Few men do. Think it over. It's customary for men to buy many of life's necessities on Credit. In fact, it is such a prevalent habit that you scarcely think anything about it.

But have you ever bought Clothes this way? Lots of men do. For instance, at CHERRY'S clothing Store at 528 13th street between Washington and Clay streets, you can get a new suit TOMORROW and have it charged. If your CREDIT is good at other stores, it is good at CHERRY'S. All you have to do is to make a small initial payment when you select your Suit. Then you arrange with the Credit Department a schedule of weekly or monthly payments.

CHERRY'S store transacted an enormous business during 1915. The reason this concern's patronage grows month by month and year by year is because the store treats its customers right. Suits and Overcoats are moderately priced and may be purchased on liberal Credit Terms.

Besides the store at 528 13th street CHERRY'S also have another store just across the street at 515 13th, which carries ladies' goods exclusively. CHERRY'S also have two stores in San Francisco, one at 1009 Market street and the other at 2400 Mission street. These stores handle both ladies' and men's goods. Other stores—Portland, Los Angeles and Sacramento.—Advt.

MUNYON TALKS ON GRIPPE

Treatment Positively Breaks Up the Most Severe Forms of This Disease, Frequently in a Few Hours' Time.

"If I were asked as to which of my remedies I consider the most valuable as a cure of grippe, I would unhesitatingly say: A combination of Grippe Remedy, Smo-Ko Cigarettes and Paw Paw Pills. I regard a cold as the most dangerous of all ailments. It leads to grippe, catarrh, neuralgia, sore throat, pneumonia and consumption. Smo-Ko Tobaccoless Cigarettes will cure colds and stop discharges of the nose and eyes in a few minutes. Smo-Ko will instantly kill any nose or throat germs, and soothe the inflamed parts. One Cigarette often smokes the disease out of the head and throat. Where the bones ache and there is a fever and you have chills or pains in the back, secure at once a bottle of Munyon's Grippe Remedy and take the pellets every fifteen minutes. These pellets will allay inflammation, reduce fever and take away Grippe pains and aches. I strongly advise in connection with these two remedies, that people keep their liver active and their bowels open by taking a Paw Paw Laxative Pill at night. These pills aid digestion and strengthen the general system. This treatment, consisting of a bottle of MUNYON'S GRIPPE REMEDY, a bottle of MUNYON'S PAW PAW PILLS and a box of SMO-KO CIGARETTES will cost you only 60c and the combination will prove of untold benefit to you. They are sold in nearly every drug store, or you can secure them by mail by addressing the Munyon Remedy Co., 13th and Market Streets, Philadelphia.

"The present epidemic proves that the old-fashioned remedies do not cure; therefore, why not try the new?"

—MUNYON.
